February is Love a Picture Book Month

In 2010, an article in the New York Times (NYT) dismissed the benefits of reading picture books. In reply, Ms. Sundstrom made a 15-foot-long scroll entitled, "We Love to Read!", had it signed by 388 Birch Lane kids, staff, and parents, and sent it to the NYT. The NYT editor issued a response saying it was (and remains to this day) his very favorite comment "letter" ever received. See the letter and scroll here: <http://www.nytimes.com/letterscroll> and <http://www.nytimes.com/2011/04/14/opinion/114scroll.html>

All month the number of books read is tracked, and the tally is displayed in the library. An evening celebration of reading for all Birch Lane families will be on March 7 at Love a Picture Book Night. Volunteers are needed all month during school hours. Email Ms. Sundstrom lsundstrom@djud.net to help.

Garden Update

- ❖ Last quarter, 17 classes planted six 25-foot rows of winter veggies on the student farm.
- ❖ This quarter, classes will be harvesting cauliflower, broccoli, and lettuce, making hummus and salad dressing, and tasting the delicious, fresh vegetables.
- ❖ We recently purchased indoor seed starting materials thanks to a generous grant from Davis Farm to School, and we were also awarded a grant from the Honeybee Conservancy, which will be sending us mason and leafcutter bees—and everything we need to care for them.

Look for more information in the spring!

- Cover coughs and sneezes – cough or sneeze into a tissue or your elbow.
